

Experience

Coeur d'Alene Tribe, Worley, Idaho

Coeur d'Alene Tribe Casino Golf Course Expansion Project, 2002

- Project includes design of golf course infrastructure including: water, sewer, roads, parking lot, U.S. Highway 95 underpass and site disturbance plans.
- Design and permitting for a vehicle undercrossing beneath U.S. Highway 95, a vehicle undercrossing for Union Pacific Railroad, a pedestrian overpass for U.P. Railroad, a new highway frontage road, commercial entrance roundabout and parking facilities
- Surveying services to define limits of tribal ownership, wetland delineation pond excavation.
- Maintenance building civil site plan
- Mass excavation quantity calculations golf course and lake construction
- Wetlands Delineation, Hydrology Studies and Models
- Flood Evaluations
- 404 Permit Exhibits and Application Consultation for Army Corps of Engineers
- Wetland Mitigation, Operation, Maintenance Plans
- Wetland Mitigation Construction Plans and Schedules
- Stormwater master plans/designs for driving range, clubhouse, rodeo grounds, lake areas
- Hydrologic studies of flood plain of Rock Creek
- 404 Permit to Army Corps of Engineers
- Stream Channel Relocation
- Stream Bank Stabilization

Stakeholders:

- Group West Companies
- Coeur d'Alene Tribal Casino
- Coeur d'Alene Tribe
- Aecon Buildings

Key Staff Members:

- John J. Karpenko, P.E., Project Manager
- Robert I. Hull, P.L.S., Project Survey Manager
- Gerry Hoggatt, Staff Design Engineer
- Neil P. FitzSimmons, P.E./P.L.S., Project Engineer
- Andrew D. Staples, E.I.T.

SubConsultant Team:

- Allwest Engineering
Geotechnical - Chris Beck, P.E.
- Terracon

Contacts:

- Jerry Krieg, Coeur d' Alene Tribe, (800) 523-2464
- Dave Matheson, Coeur d' Alene, (800) 523-2464
- Tom Loder, Coeur d' Alene Tribe, (888) 300-4868
- Aecon Buildings, (425) 774-2945

